PURPLE KEY ELECTS KEEGAN CHAIRMAN

ELEVEN NEW MEMBERS ARE NAMED;
SENIORS AWARDED CHARMS

On Saturday evening the Purple Key climaxed its activities for the present school year with its annual banquet at Putnam and Thurston's Restaurant. At the banquet the Senior members were awarded their keys, and newly elected members were inducted into the organization. An announcement of the election of Joseph M. Keegan, '44, as Chairman of the Purple Key for the coming year was also made at the banquet.

Keegan Active on Campus

Joseph Keegan has been active in extracurricular activities since Freshman year when he was elected to the Key. He was President of Freshman Intramural Debating, and was a member of the Sodality and the Sanctuary Society. He is a varsity debater for the B.J.F. and has served on the TOMAHAWK for three years. Recently his appointment as First Assistant of the Sodality and as City Editor of the TOMAHAWK was made. He is in the Marine Reserve.

Five New Junior Members Elected

Among the present Juniors elected to the Key is George Titus, Captain-elect of the football team. A resident of Brooklyn, N. Y., George has been engaged in athletics, the Sodality and Intramural Debating. Allyn McCort of Jamaica Plains was also elected. "Al" is a member of the Sodality, has played with the Holy Cross Band, and is a regular participant in intramural sports. Louis Garrippy, pre-medical student from Detroit, is another of the newly elected Juniors. "Lou" is widely known on the campus for his prowess on the intramural field. Robert Nolan, Junior Class Treasurer, was also elected to membership. From Glens Falls, N. Y., "Bob" is a member of the History Society and the Labor Academy. Also elected to membership in the Key was John Leary. John is a resident of Worcester, and is Vice President of the Junior Class. He has taken an active part in Sodality activities and the Mission Crusade.

B. J. F. Gets Nod Over Elms Trio

Women screamed and strong men fainted, the walls bulged and the floor sagged as Leonard Hall was crammed to its modest 150 capacity last Friday night for the clash between the B.J.F. of Holy Cross, as represented by Everett Hewitt and Ray Cooney, and the debaters of Our Lady of the Elms College of Springfield. Every seat was taken and a few spectators were already standing in the back of the hall when the debate got under way at about 7:30. Miss Mary Soughlin opened the fight for the affirmative in favor of a federal union. Mr. Hewitt returned several cogent arguments for the negative, and the crowd cheered. Miss Mary Shaughnessy took

SCROLL ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Due to the early graduation and the equally early class promotion, the Cross and Scroll, at their semimonthly meeting, held the annual election of officers. Louis S. Bernadotte, '44, long an active member of the society, was unanimously chosen president for the ensuing year. Chosen as vice-president was Thomas F. Kilfoil, of the junior class. Francis J. Waickman, '45, and Thomas W. Phelan, '46, were elected as Secretary and Sergeant-at-arms respectively.

In accepting his post, Mr. Bernadotte commended his predecessors and the Rev. William T. Donaldson, S.J., moderator of the society, and promised to keep up the fine tradition of the society in spite of pre-

Senior Ball Date February 13

Bancroft Ballroom Is Chosen for Dance; Cole to Play

The Rev. Joseph D. FitzGerald, S.J., dean of studies, announces that the annual Senior Ball will be held on Saturday, February 13. Thomas J. Cummings, '43, and George H. Merritt, '43, have been named Co-chairmen of the dance with Robert V. McCarthy, '43, representing the day students. The Main ballroom of the Hotel Bancroft has been secured for the dance. Russ Cole's orchestra was chosen from a half dozen bands which were bidding in competition. Russ and his band are remembered for their pleasing performance at the Boston Club dance last Fall. The class, by an 81-64 vote, decided to make the dance formal. In place of favors, the money usually spent on this feature will be put into dance programs.

Result of Petition

The decision to hold the dance came as a result of a petition by the seniors, hastily organized to assure the centenary graduating class some measure of the traditional graduation ceremony which has been all but abolished with the advent of the war. Class president Vin McSweeney offered words of praise for the energetic and spur-of-the-moment efforts of the chairmen which brought such quick results. McSweeney also made it clear that this dance can not be open to underclassmen, as it is a strictly senior affair.

Banquet in Afternoon

It was also officially announced today that the Senior Banquet will be held in Kimball Hall at 1:30 P. M., Saturday, Feb. 13.

FRENCH ACADEMY

The French Academy will present a piano recital by William Fahey, '46, on Thursday, Jan. 28, at 12:45 P. M. in the Chapel Auditorium. George Green, '46, will offer a commentary in French on his recital, which will be composed of selections from Chopin and Debussy.

Keegan, Lohr, Kilfoil, Daley, Ross Named As Assistants

At the weekly meeting of the Sodality held last evening in Memorial Chapel, Rev. T. Lawrence Foran, S.J., Director of the Sodality, announced the appointment of executive officers for the coming school year. James T. Cassidy, Jr. has been appointed Prefect; Henry F. Kilfoil, Vice Prefect; John A. Ross and Joseph M. Keegan, First Assistants; Robert F. Lohr and William P. Daley, Second Assistants.

James Cassidy, the newly appointed Prefect, has been active in the Sodality since his Freshman year at Holy Cross. He has served on the secretarial staff and on various committees of the Sodality. A varsity debater, he is treasurer of the B.J.F. Debating Society. In the past month Jim was made a member of the Alpha Sigma Nu, Jesuit honor society, in recognition of his scholarship and leadership. He is enlisted in the Naval V-7.

Kilfoil Leads Tuesday Group

Henry F. Kilfoil as Vice Prefect will serve as the leader of the Tuesday afternoon group of the Sodality. In the past school year he was an assistant to Tom Casey in this particular group of the Sodality. He is a member of the Sanctuary Society and has enlisted in the Naval V-7.

John A. Ross will assist Henry Kilfoil in the administrative duties of the

Garland, Morgan Are Associates; Condron Business Manager

The appointment of ten Juniors to fill the editorial positions which the Seniors officially relinquish with the publication of this issue, was announced today. Members of the new staff and their appointments are William T. Cullen, Jr., Editor-in-Chief; Joseph Garland, Jr., and John P. Morgan, Associate Editors; Joseph C. Condron, Business Manager; Walter R. Moynihan, Managing Editor; Joseph M. Keegan, City Editor; Raymond E. Cooney, Editorial Editor; Marty C. McCue, News Editor; Kenneth E. Sullivan, Feature Editor, and Paul H. Murray, Sports Editor.

WILLIAM T. CULLEN, Jr.

William Thomas Cullen, Jr., the new Editor-in-Chief, was born in Scranton, Penn., but his viewpoints are not in the least sectional; in fact, he has the most cosmopolitan outlook of anyone in the junior class. Bill is no stranger to the gilded editor's chair because he comes from a long line of newspaper folk and was himself editor of the Scranton Central high school paper and magazine, "Impressions." Ever since freshman year, when he started as a typist, Bill has been an energetic member of the TOMAHAWK. For the past year he has been writing Intercollegiate Hour, one of the brighter spots in the weekly editions. The TOMAHAWK has not been his only interest. Bill is a member of the Junior Ring committee, the History Society, the So-

NEW MUSICAL GROUP INAUGURATED; FR. KEANE FOUNDS ALLEGRO CLUB

MUSIC LOVERS' CHERISHED HOPE TO BE FULFILLED BY NEW ORGANIZATION

Tonight, immediately after chapel, a new club will be inaugurated at Holy Cross. The Rev. Joseph M. Keane, S.J., founder and moderator of the new organization to be known as the Allegro Club, has introduced this idea to make up for the curtailment of musical activity on the Hill. The purpose of the Allegro Club is to offer lovers of classical music a chance once a week to hear an hour-long concert of the best classical records played on the Victor record machine in the music studio. The concerts will be held each Tuesday evening directly after chapel. Tonight, the opening performance will be Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 4 in A major. Next Tuesday's selection will be the Romeo and Juliet overture by Tchaikowsky. Each meeting will include a very short introductory paper on the life of the composer and the nature of his works.

Students Contribute Music Albums

Father Keane has an excellent repertoire of records from which to choose, as many of the students have contributed music albums to the collection, and the huge library of classical records of the Worcester Art Museum has been placed at the disposal of the Music moderator. Father Keane wishes the members of the club to hear the music they want, and for this reason will encourage requests for particular records.

Deegan Lectures On North Africa

Joseph Deegan, '45, was the lecturer at the weekly meeting of the History Society held last evening in room 51, Carlin Hall. This lecture was the first in a series devoted to a survey of the battlefields of North Africa. During the course of these lectures the political, economic, geographical and military aspects of this important area will be discussed at length.

Sources of Delay

Deegan treated the more populated part of this little known continent. Tripoli, Tunisia, and the districts occupied by the American forces were the main points discussed. The speaker pointed out that we have had more difficulty in this area than we had expected. He attributed this to three main factors. First, after three months we are only now establishing air superiority. Up until quite recently we were outclassed as far as numbers go in the air and consequently had great difficulty in keeping our supply lines intact. Secondly, the political dissension between the French populations has been a constant source of confusion. Our military leaders have had their hands full trying to conciliate the various French factions. The last major cause for our slow success has been the horrible mud in which it is absolutely impossible to use mechanized equipment.

Deegan also pointed out that the British are beginning to lose confidence in Gen. Eisenhower. It seemed for a time that the allies would be united under his command and that there would be complete unanimity in the two camps, but this hope has not been fulfilled.

Joseph M. Keegan is a member of the Marine Reserve. He is Vice President of the Jersey Club, hailing from Passaic, New Jersey. In the coming school year he will serve as an assistant to James Cassidy.

Robert F. Lohr has a long line of Sodality activity to his credit, serving as Prefect of the Sodality at St. Peter's Prep, where he prepared for Holy Cross. He is a member of the Sanctuary Society and has played on the corridor teams in the intramural league. He is enlisted in V-7.

William P. Daley is from Pelham, New York, where he attended Pelham Memorial High School. He is chairman of the Catholic Literature Committee and has been a member of the Sanctuary Society since Freshman year. He has participated in intramural sports and is enlisted in the Army Air Force Reserve.

"This last definition, gentlemen, I take from the 'Special Ethics' of one of your neighbors, Rev. Joseph Sullivan, S.J., professor of Ethics in Holy Cross College, a book which, by the way, I take the liberty to recommend to you . . . I feel sure that if you read that book you will admit that you will have been helped to think more clearly and more helpfully on what is right and wrong in all these domains."

ARMY - NAVY NEWS

The following communication was received in the office of the Military Adviser relative to the enlistment in the Army Reserve of seventeen year olds.

"You are authorized to enlist in the Enlisted Reserve Corps any man who has attained his seventeenth birthday but who has not reached his eighteenth birthday, provided he is found otherwise qualified for general military service and provided the consent of his parents or guardian is obtained. Enlistments will be made in the following categories only:

a. Enlisted Reserve Corps, unassigned.

b. Air Corps Enlisted Reserve for those who qualify for aviation cadet training under current standards.

Any man enlisted under this authority will not be ordered to active duty until he has attained his eighteenth birthday but in every instance will be ordered to active duty within six months after reaching his eighteenth birthday."

Many students, not yet eighteen, signified by writing before December 5th their intention of enlisting in the ERC upon reaching their eighteenth birthday. To them the above instructions apply particularly. To them also, the Naval Reserve V-1, V-5, V-7, are open until March 15.

To Pre-med or Pre-dental students the Local Draft Board may grant deferment provided these students have completed one year of pre-medical work.

Sample Tests

"Practice for the Army Tests" is the title of a book containing many sample Army aptitude tests, which may be consulted in the Military Adviser's office or the book store. If a sufficient demand is made a supply of the books will be ordered to be sold at the book store at $1.50 per copy. Since all Army reservists or inductees will face Army aptitude tests sooner or later, this pre-view of many sample tests may prove extremely beneficial.

Opportunity for Specialized Students

Unassigned reservists enrolled as juniors or seniors, with major study in electrical engineering or electronic physics, may be transferred to the Electronics Training Group office of the Chief Signal Officer. Those reservists qualified for and desiring such enrollment should apply direct to the Chief Signal Officer, Headquarters Services of Supply, War Department, Washington, D. C.

the floor and advanced the cause of the federal union in a style which gained her the judges' decision as best speaker. Ray Cooney, second constructive speaker, registered the final blows against the premises of the affirmative case.

2-1 Decision

After a five minute intermission, the rebuttals were presented with each side scoring the defects in the other's argument. The judges' votes, collected and tabulated at the end of the rebuttals, showed Holy Cross the winner by a 2-1 vote.

This victory leaves the B.J.F. still undefeated for the new term, since, on Wednesday last, it twice defeated teams representing Worcester Tech, one here while defending the negative of the intercollegiate topic, and one at Tech while upholding the opposite side. Donald Markham and James Fee were the speakers here; Ed Browne and Tom Sullivan debated at Tech.

The recordings themselves feature such renowned orchestras and conductors as the Boston Symphony and Serge Koussevitzky, the New York Philharmonic under Arturo Toscanini, and the Philadelphia Symphony under Eugene Ormandy.

As the title of the new club implies, its end is the enjoyment of good music, and the leisurely atmosphere and comfortable furnishings of the music studio (lower chapel) offer ideal surroundings for the accomplishment of this purpose. It is hoped that the Allegro Club is the start of what may grow into a Music Appreciation course.

SOPHOMORE RINGS

The Sophomore Ring committee announces that the first orders for class rings will be taken in the Dayhop Room on Feb. 9, from 12:30 to 4:30 P. M. Those wishing to place orders must be prepared to pay a $5.00 deposit.

vailing conditions.

Prior to the election Stephen Barone, '43, addressed the Society on "The Heroic Spirit of Corneille." He pointed out that all of Corneille's characters were "sublime men uttering sublime thoughts" and that at times these characters became even too perfect. Using Le Cid, Polyucte, and Oreste as especially fine examples, Mr. Barone developed his discussion of Corneille's dramas.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Fr. Donaldson praised last year's officers and offered his congratulations to the incoming staff. He also expressed the hope that the public lecture series might be continued in the near future.

NEW TOMAHAWK STAFF SUCCEEDS SENIORS

CULLEN HEADS INCOMING GROUP;
MURRAY NAMED SPORTS EDITOR

dality and an active participator in Intramural athletics. He is enrolled in the Naval Reserve, V-7.

JOSEPH GARLAND, Jr.

Assuming a share of the Associate Editor's responsibilities will be the job of Joseph Garland, Jr., a native of Brooklyn, N. Y., and a Dodger rooter from way back. Joe has the distinction of being a graduate of Regis High School, where he acquainted himself with newspaper work before he started to write for the TOMAHAWK in freshman year. Recently selected for membership in Alpha Sigma Nu, Joe has been a section A honor man since he entered Holy Cross. He is vice-president of the History Society and Recording Secretary of the New England Catholic College Peace Federation; he has been a first tenor in the Glee Club, a "best speaker" debater for the B.J.F., and member of the Sodality. Joe is well qualified for his new position, having in the past written news stories, features, and columns, and served this year as Junior Editor of the Purple Patcher. Joe is also enrolled in the Naval Reserve, V-7.

JOHN P. MORGAN

Sharing the Associate Editor's post with Garland will be John Morgan, a Massachusetts boy from Methuen. It will be his duty, along with Garland, to check incoming copy and polish it if necessary, to judge the quality of headlines on Monday nights, to make out photography assignments, and to be prepared to take full charge of the paper in case of the editor's absence. He has been a member of the news board since his first days on the Hill, has collaborated with Garland on Cross Campus, and of late has conducted the Army-Navy News column, besides handling many news write-ups. John also belongs to Alpha Sigma Nu, is secretary of the B.J.F., and a member of its varsity team; he has lectured for the History Society and is enrolled like most of the others in V-7.

JOSEPH C. CONDRON

The man who will be responsible for the upkeep of the TOMAHAWK for the coming months is Joseph Charles Condron. As Business Manager it will be his duty to supply the paper with advertisements and see to it that the men who are bothered with copy don't have to worry over finances. With an economics course to back him up, Joe is well prepared to handle the TOMAHAWK's business details. Besides, business transactions come natural to the Condrons: Joe's brother, Phil, was Business Manager of the 1941 Purple Patcher. Joe is another Scranton boy, and like the new editor-in-chief also worked for "Impressions" at Scranton Central High School. Joe is the fourth member of the staff in V-7 and is a rabid participator in intramural sports.

WALTER R. MOYNIHAN

The task of fitting news items into six pages every issue and producing an attractive, orderly newspaper falls to Walter Richard Moynihan, of Milford, Mass. Dick succeeds Andrew S. Carten, who left his position as managing editor for active duty with the Army Air Corps several weeks ago. Like the other editors, Dick has written for the TOMAHAWK for the last two and a half years. He has gained a wealth of experience as editor-in-chief of the French Academy's literary paper, Le Croisé. Recently he was elected vice-president of the B.J.F., and chosen for membership in Alpha Sigma Nu. Dick is in V-7, and a member of the Sodality and History Society.

JOSEPH M. KEEGAN

Joseph M. Keegan steps into a job which "Bitsy" Collins made famous in 1941 and which Robert P. McKeogh made a model of efficiency. As City Editor, Joe will assign all news articles, and have charge of all reporters. The City Editor's job has traditionally been a whirlwind of activity, requiring a constant lookout for news articles. Joe has been writing accounts for the TOMAHAWK since he first carried his luggage to the top floor of Fenwick. His interest and activities in his days at the Cross have made tonight's issue of the TOMAHAWK a "Keegan Edition." His name tops the Purple Key write-up as the newly elected Key Chairman, and he is featured in the Sodality account as a First Assistant Prefect. Joe is a member of the Sanctuary Society and a varsity debater for the B.J.F. His home is Pas-saic, N. J., which he ably represents in the Jersey Club as vice-president. Following in the footsteps of former Editor Larson, Joe has joined the Marine Reserve.

RAYMOND E. COONEY

Handling the editorials for the new staff will be Raymond E. Cooney, of College Pt., New York, known in debating circles as "Raymore-Playmore." Ray succeeds John R. McCarthy who has established a notable editorial reputation for Ray to live up to. Besides writing news articles for the TOMAHAWK, Ray has expressed his views in Pillar to Post and Cross Campus. He conducted the latter in collaboration with Ken Sullivan. While preparing for Holy Cross at St. Agnes' high school, Ray edited his school paper. He has been active as debater and actor while on the hill. During his freshman year he had a leading role in the freshman play, and starred a year later as the doctor in "First Legion." Cooney also has joined the ranks of V-7.

MARTY C. McCUE

Succeeding William P. Whelan as News Editor is Marty C. McCue. Marty is the man in personal charge of proof and copy readers, and headline writers. Marty has worked on the TOMAHAWK in almost every capacity since his freshman year, and has a huge list of stories to his credit. In addition to his work on the TOMAHAWK, he has been a member of many Sodality committees. Last fall he was appointed to membership in the Purple Key. At present, he is Junior Assistant of the Sanctuary Society, and an active participator in intramural athletics. Marty hails from Long Branch, Long Island, where he attended the Long Branch High School. He is enlisted in the V-7.

KENNETH E. SULLIVAN

Kenneth E. Sullivan replaces Martin F. Conroy as Feature Editor. As his title implies, he will be in charge of all columns appearing in the TOMAHAWK, as well as articles that deal with the novel and unusual aspects of college life. Ken has written news stories, features, and editorials for the TOMAHAWK in the past and so will move into his new office with relative ease. He has been a frefrom Niagara Falls. "Bill" Kellick is President of the Sophomore class, is a varsity basketball player and a member of the Sodality. "Dick" Nolan is Treasurer of the class and is a member of the TOMAHAWK Sports Staff.

Four members of the Freshman class were elected to the Key; Robert Hogarty, Fred Hamilton, Allan Cassidy, and Thomas Burke. "Bob" Hogarty of Kew Gardens is the son of an alumnus and is a member of the Sodality, the Glee Club, and is Freshman Sports reporter for the TOMAHAWK. Fred Hamilton is the brother of Dick "Bones" Hamilton of the class of '42. Fred hails from Bridgeport, is a member of the Sodality, and has been particularly active in intramural sports. Allan Cassidy is from Washington, D. C. and has been active in Sodality work. The last new member is Thomas Burke of Milwaukee, Wisc.

quent contributor to the pages of the "Purple," and is assistant manager of the Glee Club, manager of the Playshop, a member of Alpha Sigma Nu, a varsity debater, a member of the History Society, and an active member of the Sodality.

PAUL H. MURRAY

James P. Lynch, Jr., leaves to Paul H. Murray the difficult task of recording all sports events, both intramural and varsity, that take place at Holy Cross. Paul has been well "broken in" to the position of Sports Editor as is evidenced by his work with the Sports Department since he entered the Cross. He has written accounts of football, basketball, and baseball games, track meets, bowling contests, and even bridge tournaments. While conducting the Intramuralites column he acquainted himself with the entire intramural program, and in Purple Pennings took a crack at varsity athletics. But Paul is not merely the observer; he has been a mainstay in football, basketball and baseball teams in the intramural league. Lately he has been engineering sports in general as Student Intramural Manager. Paul, who is majoring in Economics, is a resident of Gardner, Mass. He is enrolled in the V-7 program.

LOUGHMAN, SALATIELLO ADDRESS CHEMISTS

GRADUATE SEMINARS PRESENTED BY
DIGRIS, HARDIMAN, AND GREEN

The Holy Cross Chemistry Department has been carrying out its projected program of seminars by seniors and graduate assistants. The concluding senior lectures were presented on December 18 by Peter P. Salatiello and J. Philip Loughman.

Salatiello discussed "Organic Solvent Analogies to Water of Hydration." In addition to the well-known phenomenon of a salt's combination with water upon its precipitation from a water solution, he explained, a similar combination takes place when certain organic substances are separated from alcohol, benzene, or acetone solutions.

"Azeotropic Mixtures in the Chloroform Synthesis" were treated by Loughman. The difficulties encountered in the preparation of chloroform from acetone and bleaching powder, as well as the methods for overcoming them were discussed. Loughman explained his laboratory problem of testing the advantages in this preparation and devising a successful separation of the end products.

Graduate Assistants Lecture

Bernard J. Digris initiated the program of graduate seminars on January 8 with a lecture on the new methods of Colorimetric Analysis. He illustrated his talk by exhibiting a modern colorimeter and presenting various parts to the audience for examination. After reviewing the progress made on this method of analysis in recent years, he explained how the instrument "reads" an unknown concentration of colored solute by means of color comparison with a solution of known concentration.

John A. Green continued the series with a paper on "Refractive Indices of Solids." The topic concerned the application to solids of the established method for determining this physical property of liquids by means of the Refractometer. The speaker showed how the general method of this application involves the immersion of a solid in a liquid of known refractive index.

Hardiman Lectures at Recent Seminar

The most recent seminar was presented by John P. Hardiman, speaking on "The Theory of Nitrogen Rearrangements." Hardiman pointed out the electronic changes involved in these rearrangements, and discussed the actual and apparent valences of nitrogen in these cases.

CO-OPERATION

The TOMAHAWK is now in the hands of a new group of editors. We are confronted with the tough assignment of maintaining the standard set by the editors who have just stepped out of office. We have big boots to fill; we cannot do it without the co-operation of the student body.

Some of our students seem to think that the TOMAHAWK is printed for the editors. It is not necessary to say that if there were no student body there would be no paper. It is your paper, your co-operation with the editors is essential for its success. You are our critics every Tuesday night. Do not keep your criticism to yourselves; let us know about it. When you see some room for improvement point it out to an editor; if you have any new ideas you will find the editors most attentive, and if you would like to become a contributor we certainly can use you. Your paper will be no greater than your co-operation with us. We are ready to do our share; we hope that you will do yours.

WELL DONE

Men who do their work thoroughly and exactly are valuable men. And their value is enhanced when they assume responsibilities in the full knowledge of the arduous work and meager thanks ahead. The best they can offer in time and talent is generously given, and the only reward they seek, oftentimes the only reward they receive, is the satisfaction that is theirs in having done a job — and done it well. Such men made up the staff of the TOMAHAWK during the past scholastic year, and we do not want them to pass from our midst without offering them this simple tribute.

Members of the TOMAHAWK staff, like the majority of journalists on every paper, serve quietly and anonymously. Day after day they step into the office to spend hours doing hard, monotonous work that is little appreciated by those who are unacquainted with newspaper work, especially college newspaper work. Unlike members of other college activities, they never hear a crowd cheer their efforts, nor receive the plaudits of a grateful student body. Yet their unselfish service does deserve such rewards. They are as loyal and self-sacrificing as any of our athletes; they do, in their own way, bring honor and distinction to their alma mater.

KEEP AT IT

The War Department has just announced that all college men who are enlisted in the Army Reserve will be summoned for active service at the end of this semester. Holy Cross is not startled by this announcement; our men are ready. True, the loss of these men will be felt. They will be missed by their classmates, and especially by the student activities to which they have given their loyal support. However, we hope that the men who are certain to go will stick by their campus organizations until the axe falls.

The vigorous fight put up by the Holy Cross Musical Clubs is a fine example of what gumption can do. Despite the loss of many valuable men and the presence of the sword of immediate call to the service over their heads, these men have kept together. The founding of the Allegro Club to make up for the curtailment of musical activity on the Hill is proof of their determination to continue. This new activity deserves the praise and support of all.

NAVAL RESERVE NOTES

By Paul F. Hopper, '45

Captain Davis issued a timely warning to all students of Holy Cross who will soon attain their 18th birthday. The date set for the closing of enlistments for the class V-1 U. S. Naval Reserve, even to those of 17 years of age, is March 15, 1943. Said Captain Davis: "Speed is urged on the part of all students between the ages of 17 and 18 years of age. March 15 is the deadline after which we can do nothing for any students wishing to enlist. Begin now, for the gathering of the necessary papers often takes several weeks or more." Any information regarding these enlistments can be obtained either from Fr. Bean's office, or from the main office of the N.R.O.T.C. on the second floor of the library.

Together with this news, Commander Hamill announced the opening of the class V-5 enlistments to students who are seventeen years of age. Formerly enlistments for this branch began at 18. He also announced that plans have been completed whereby members of the Army R.O.T.C. who have expressed their wish to transfer to the Navy may now enlist in V-1 providing they are able to pass the physical requirements.

"Abandon ship" was the command echoing from the four walls of Wheeler Hall last Friday afternoon as the entire unit moved out from its former quarters to the new battle stations on the second floor of the library. Falling in with their oldest clothes on, all members of the N.R.O.T.C. unit made short work of a big job. The three offices are now spread throughout six spacious rooms in the library and the cramped conditions have been alleviated. Forming a series of two-man shifts, the cadets braved the gusty winds of Mount St. James and moved every article from the smallest thumb tack to the 500 lb. metal counters and the two ton safe. Navy efficiency again proved itself as everything progressed with clock-work precision. The total time required for the moving was one hour and seventeen minutes.

It seems that Chief Schiavoni has found an excellent specimen for the Waves. Friday morning of last week, as he gallantly stepped aside to permit a lady to mount a waiting street car, our Chief Quartermaster was unceremoniously bumped by said lady and an instant later found himself flat on his back underneath the car. Moanfully nursing his sprained back and bruised shin, Chief Schiavoni testified that the Amazons are on the loose again.

CROSS CAMPUS

By Ray Cooney, '44 and Ken Sullivan, '44

Hugh Gillespie, sophomore enamoree of an autobiographical Worcester beauty, ended the tie between Carlin I and Beaven III by scoring in the last half minute of play. Ironical that he sunk it in the wrong basket.

Third Beaven is puckering up its lips for February thirteenth when it will "Kiss the Boys Goodbye."

The B.J.F. puffed out its chest (collegiate) at the debate last Friday. Especially so when someone was heard to say fifteen minutes before the debate started, "Who's holding our seats?"

Frank Kelley, '43, showed real prowess recently when he won the mile race with one shoe on at an intercollegiate meet. He lost the other in the third lap.

Gus Bennett of the Sophomore Greek class has an original method of letting the teacher know when class is over. He blows a whistle.

Only expenditure recorded in the B.J.F. treasury report was an item of $1.35 for supplies, consisting of books for the treasury report.

With the formation of the classical music club, Jim Coyle shouldn't be the only one who can tell Prokofieff from Shostakovitch.

It was Msgr. Fulton Sheen who said that John Dewey was doing more to ruin American youth than Johnny Walker.

Now that the yearbook is out, the seniors are wondering how to explain to the folks back home what this and that remark refers to.

Reports from Parris Island indicate that top sergeants deny the thesis in psychology which states that man is a rational animal endowed with body and soul, intellect and will, etc.

After a three week absence, Hoya, like the prodigal son, has returned to the fold and has indicated he is glad to be back. That's one dog that didn't get into the stew.

Who knows the second verse of the Alma Mater? And the names of the saints of the Chapel Windows?

Fr. Connelly's navigation class figures the best way to compensate for sub-permanent magnetism on a fighting ship is to go back to wooden ships.

With fear and trepidation we venture to tell of another moron; this one amputated his arms because his mother bought him a sleeveless sweater.

INTERCOLLEGIATE HOUR

By Paul Murphy, '45

The sweet young thing was proudly, if not proficiently, driving her streamlined sports car. Coming to a busy intersection, she found a red stop-light staring her in the face.

To her annoyance, when the green "go" signal appeared, she discovered her engine had stalled. Several minutes of frantic fumbling followed but she could not get the car to move.

The traffic policeman approached, saluted, and inquired:

"Haven't we any colors you like, Miss?"

— "Santa Clara."

Those H. C. sailors who are trying to combine attendance at the forthcoming naval ball with economy, should appreciate the sentiments of the lad from Fordham who wrote:

"Roses are red
Violets are blue
Orchids are $3.50
Won't dandelions do?"

Students at Gonzaga University have, with praiseworthy initiative, begun a "Briars for Bing" campaign. It seems that Bing Crosby, of cinema fame, is one of the more celebrated (as they would have you put it) alumni of that institution and has accordingly contributed a lot toward the improvement, material and otherwise, of the same. In a recent $250,000 fire which completely destroyed his home, his collection of pipes, considered the best in the world, was lost. To proffer concrete proof of their gratitude to their benefactor, the students decided jointly to collect as many pipes as possible and turn them over to him.

"That's the spirit," as the medium said when the table began to rise. (With apologies to the New Rochelle "Tatler")

Our sympathy to the inveterate inebriate who put a penny in a mail box, gazed up at the town clock, and gasped: "Heavens, I've lost fourteen pounds."

Unhappy F8

Weep to the tale of Willie T8 Who met a girl whose name was K8. He courted her at a fearful r8, And begged her soon to become his m8.

"I would if I could," said lovely K8, "I pity your lonely, unhappy st8, But alas, alas, you've come too l8 I'm married already, the mother of 8."

—The "Skidmore News."

Modesty seems to be the fashion among morons these days, as witness the shy one who went into a dark room to change his mind. Not to mention a kindred soul who turned out the lights on his car on a lonely road so no one would see him stripping the gears.

PURPLE PENNINGS

By Walt Egan, '45

WINTER WOES . . . King Football has once more stiffened in the grip of "rigor mortis", and King Winter has frozen the throne. The last feeble gasps of the expiring B. C. Eagle no longer reach the attentive ears of Mr. Holy Cross. True, the shrieks of shuddering Boston College supporters occasionally split the atmosphere, but the desert air 'twixt here and there is generally quite serene. Whence, then, is Mr. Sporting Public to derive his sporting fodder on which to munch in mental satisfaction while wintry winds besiege his castle? We glance with him across the sports horizon . . .

IN THE DISTANCE . . . the parade of professional sports limps past. Bellowing baseball magnates and their whimpering managers try to convince themselves that the public wants wartime baseball. While bemoaning the loss of the Williamses and the DiMaggios to the armed services, they press the squeaking joints of the Cooneys and the Waners into "active service" — chasing flies, you may be sure, not Zeroes. Nor is baseball alone in its misery. Boxing writers by the score are joining Knitting Clubs to keep idle fingers busy. Hockey fans shake their heads as fat old men pass the coveted twenty-goal mark in mid-season. Mr. Sporting Public begins to wonder if the current professional "sportsmen" aren't worrying more about their Social Security boards than about their draft boards.

RIGHT UNDER OUR NOSES . . . we find a more presentable spectacle, however. Regardless of the mental uplift derived from a college sports diet as contrasted with the phlegmatic coldness of the professional atmosphere, the fact remains that the college teams of today (and here we must also include the service teams) serve the public a harder-fought, more cleanly played and definitely a more palatable dish of athletic hors-d'oeuvres than that presented by the current pro aggregations. We say "hors d'oeuvres" because these boys all realize that the main course will come with graduation and active duty, with emphasis on the "action".

HERE ON THE HILL . . . is found a typical example of what college athletics can produce, not in spite of the war, but because of it. Last year, a basketball team composed almost entirely of seasoned veterans reported to Ed Krause, and were welded into a club that was highly rated among Eastern quintets despite the fact that it lost half of its games. This year, with only one starter from the 1942 club returning, Coach Riopel issued a call for candidates and was answered by as representative a group of students as ever stepped upon a basketball floor. We say students because that is just what they are. Many are wrapped up in courses that require all the time that can be devoted to them, and many are expecting to be summoned to the colors in the near future. Yet every one of them is willing to make considerable sacrifice in order to be present at daily practice sessions that last from two to four hours. Nor do their efforts go without results. They opened their season by scaring a top-notch Fordham quintet for all but five minutes, when reserve strength began to tell. Losses to Brown and Seton Hall, far from dampening the team spirit, have served to sharpen the club's thirst for victory. Dartmouth, Amherst and Clark provide the opposition in the next (and last) three games, and if the boys were anxious to avenge the Brown football defeat, they are doubly determined to take the measure of the Green. The team will be at its peak for all three games, and are looking forward to the Clark game, their only opportunity to play before the Purple student body. The game will be on the tenth of February, and if you haven't made arrangements to be on hand with all your vocal equipment, then don't say we didn't warn you.

Brown Jinx Holds Over Crusaders

Bruins Take High Jump To Subdue Purple By Two Points

A revenge-seeking track squad from the Hill invaded the Brown campus Saturday, Jan. 23, only to be set back 37-35 by the Bruins. Just as Brown surged ahead in the second half of the gridiron and hardwood encounters, so also did they take the meet Saturday.

Purple Acquires Lead

The Purple cindermen led 35-28 at the termination of the outdoor events, leaving a certain Cross victory provided they acquired one place in the lone remaining event—the high jump.

Bob Dunn was the only H. C. entry, and upon his elimination at 4 feet, 9 inches, the remaining four Bruin jumpers, Howard, McMurtrie, Bock, and Lewis, pocketed the nine points and the meet by all four tying at 5 feet, 7 1/4 inches.

New Record Set

The highlight of the meet was the 300-yard dash in which Bill Dwyer, Brown's little sophomore dash star, established a new Brown and track record of 33.9 seconds, displacing the old record of 34 seconds.

This event was another deciding factor in the meet for had Bob Sherwood been able to overtake Stan Allen, who was running second, when he made his big bid coming into the final turn, the final score would have been reversed in favor of the Crusaders. Sherwood, however, showed his strength by placing first in the 40 yard dash, covering the distance in 4.5 seconds. Bill Dwyer of Brown placed second, with Charlie Gillis of the Cross taking third.

Kelley Loses Shoe

The 1,000-yard run was a clean sweep for the Purple as Joe Mallahan, Frank Ferrick, and Bill Layton crossed the finish line in that order. Mallahan was clocked at 2 minutes, 30.5 seconds.

Crusader Hoopsters Tangle With Fast Dartmouth Indians In Hanover

Riopelmen Hope to Bounce Back from Seton Hall Defeat; Out to Avenge Gridiron Loss

Staging a remarkable second-half rally, the Seton Hall Pirates gained a 45-30 win over the Holy Cross quintet last Wednesday evening at the victor's court before a crowd of 2000. It was the third straight loss for the Purple and the New Jersey lad's eighth triumph in ten starts. The Blue and White, holding but a slim three point lead at intermission, opened the Crusader's defense and poured on an attack that netted them twenty-seven markers in the last half. The Hall's fast-breaking offense was led by diminutive Bob Wanzer, who collected 16 points for the evening. However, he was ably assisted by lanky Bob Fitzgerald and the ambidextrous playmaker Al Diehl. Joe Campbell, shifted to the center slot in the absence of George Connor, played superlatively and was high man for the Purple with nine markers. He was closely followed around three seasoned veterans—Jim Olsen, six foot five inch pivot man; George Munroe, excellent floor man and a good shot; and Joe Myers, a fine defensive worker. Strong reserves led by freshmen Audley Brindley aid the Hanover lads immensely.

Coach Riopel, in an attempt to capture his first win, will probably juggle his starting quintet. Jim Riley and Joe Campbell both exhibited marked improvement in the Seton Hall game and are slated to open at the forward positions. George Connor, missed sorely in the last fracas, will be back at the center post; Steve Murphy and Al Mazeika round out the club.

Notes on the Seton Hall game

Referreeing was excellent . . . Johnny Nucatola, regular Garden ref and one of the best in the business, performed in his usual fine manner . . . Joe Campbell brought the fans to their feet with his remarkable one handed shots just before the half . . . Both he and Jim Riley grabbed rebound after rebound from both backboards . . . Ownie Carroll, former Holy Cross pitcher back in the early 'twenties and later a big-league twirler, was seen at the contest. He had scouted the Seton Hall club for Coach "Hop." Hugh Devore put in an appearance, as did several of the staunch New York Alumni . . . The new ban placed on pleasure driving by the ODT certainly affected the size of the crowd. Last year's game jammed Marvel Gym while only two thousand witnessed this season's encounter.

DAY HOPS TRIM WHEELER IIA

Frosh 34-28 Victors Over Senior Rivals

The high-scoring Worcester freshmen retained their untarnished slate after a hard-fought tussle with Bill McMahon's Wheeler II quintet, Friday afternoon, when they handed the seniors their second straight defeat to the tune of 34-28. The game, though loosely played, was jammed with thrills, with the final outcome in doubt right up to the closing seconds. The 34 pts. acquired by the frosh represents their lowest total of the year. Also, due to the Wheeler hound-dog guards Pete Siano and Dan Moran, Bob Tivnan was limited to three goals from the floor and a pair of fouls, a good deal below his 24 pt. average in his first six encounters.

Worcester Leads 10-7

The count at the end of the initial session read one point, John Bezemes' foul shot, for Wheeler, and nothing for the day-hops. The diminutive Paul Monahan put his club into a tie for the lead with a clever left-hander from the corner. McMahon's two by Steve Murphy and sophomore Jim Riley, both garnering eight each.

Seton Leads 18-15 at Half

Seton Hall started quickly with a tap-in by Fitzgerald and Wanzer's set effort. Diehl shaded a neat lay-up and the Pirates led 6-0 before Murphy came through with a left-hander. The combination of Wanzer and Diehl opened the Hall's lead to ten points five minutes before the half. But three sensational one-handers by Campbell and Murphy's long set narrowed their advantage to 18-15 at half-time.

Coach Honey Russell's proteges wasted no time in commencing their second half scoring splurge. Wanzer's two quick lay-ups started the Seton Hall attack moving, and it was not to be stopped. Doyle's brace of fouls, and one-handers by Diehl and King gave the Pirates a 30-19 lead midway in the last half. The Crusaders began to wilt under the Hall's fast-breaking tactics. Murphy and Riley scored for the Purple, but Fitzgerald and Wanzer matched these with two-pointers. Seton Hall held a 42-28 lead with five minutes remaining. The Pirates then substituted freely and began to freeze the ball as the clock ran out.

Purple Face Dartmouth

The Purple will journey to Hanover, New Hampshire, tomorrow for their annual battle with Dartmouth. At present the Indians, leaders of the Eastern Intercollegiate League, show a record of twelve wins and but one setback, the latter coming at the hands of a strong Toledo outfit. Minnesota, Seton Hall, Yale, and Cornell are a few of their noteworthy victims. The Big Green attack is built

INTRAMURALITES

By "Doc" Carroll, '46

CAGE TOURNEY STARTS MONDAY . . . Sixteen quintets in the intramural leagues will be invited by the tournament committee to compete in the invitation tournament which begins on February 1. The first round will be completed on Tuesday, the quarter-finals on Wednesday, the semi-finals on Thursday and the finals on Friday, February 5.

The contestants will not be selected, as in the playoffs, on their record to date, but according to strength and the caliber of their opposition. Wheeler IIA and Wheeler IVA will be the only Senior teams entered. Worcester '46, Fenwick IV, two aggregations from Beaven, two from O'Kane, three from Alumni, four from Carlin and one NROTC five complete the probable roster of entrants.

The purpose of the competition is to give the senior hoopsters a chance to finish their intramural careers in a blaze of glory. The leagues will resume their schedule the following week with several squads, representing the incoming Frosh, taking the places of the senior basketballers.

WHEELER'S WONDERS WALLOPED . . . Those two highly touted fourth year teams, Wheeler IIA and Wheeler IVA, undefeated at the start of the past week, were thoroughly deflated in those seven days. Each bowed twice, with the closest contest being Carlin IIIA's victory over Wheeler IVA, 30-25. The latter also fell before Beaven I by a 33-26 margin. Alumni IB and Worc. '46 were the conquerors of Wheeler IIA by respective scores of 37-23 and 34-28.

Worcester '46 is still proving to be one of the outstanding teams in the leagues, if not the outstanding, and, coupled with O'Kane IVB, gives the Freshmen a stranglehold on the top rungs of both circuits. These two and Alumni IB remain the only courtsters who have yet to taste defeat.

ONLY A TRIO . . . But three spectacular contests are slated for this baskets were offset by the pair garnered by Larry O'Connor and Bill Scannel, and the half-time mark found the Worcesterites in the van 10-7.

Battle See-Saws

Tivnan scored as the third quarter opened, and "Jake" Brown contributed two quick goals to put the Freshmen into a commanding 16-7 lead. Then Bezemes tossed in a one-hander and Baseball Eddie Murphy added another. The score see-sawed back and forth, but the Wheelermen were unable to close the five point gap. The score, 21-16.

Frosh Close Strong

Despite the efforts of McMahon and Bezemes in the final period, the underclassmen were not to be denied, outscoring the losers by a 13-12 total, and led by Tivnan in the closing minutes, refused to relinquish their lead, winding up on the long end of a 34-28 count.

For the losers, McMahon with 11 and Bezemes with 7 points stood out, with Pete Siano especially brilliant on defense. Tivnan, Scannell and Brown paced the winners with 8 markers each, and O'Connor performed in his usual stellar defensive manner.

week's sessions on the hardwood, with two of them on tap tomorrow. The Frosh "Dayhops" will risk their 7-0 record against a Carlin IIIB gang, who were upset by Carlin IIID, 27-25, Wednesday. Later, Wheeler IIA will attempt to climb back into the win column at the expense of a powerhouse Beaven IIIA quintet. Thursday, Wheeler IVA is aiming at O'Kane IVB's clean slate with a determined look in their eyes.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF . . . Congratulations are due to Walt Winchester for his triumph in the bowling tournament. Hats off also to Jim Blount and Bob Hankins for their valiant bids for the title.

Winchester drew a bye into the final round. Blount defeated Hankins, 287-266, after a brilliant battle, to gain the finals. Winchester put the finishing touches to a successful tourney with a sensational climactic surge, particularly in his final string of 115, to overcome Blount's lead and sweep to a 302-279 victory.

JUNIORS KNOCK OVER SOPHS' HOUSE OF CARDS . . . The bridge competition drew to a close last week as Carlinites Ed Browne and Bud Barry handed Second Year Men Bob Lebling and Al Smith a 4-2 trouncing in rubbers, and claimed the accolade as the bridge champions of Mt. St. James. The victors reached the finals by eliminating the senior representatives, while the sophs trimmed the freshmen champs.

Alumni II has stolen the jump on the rest of the corridors by starting its own chess league. If some activity in this pastime were shown on other floors, perhaps a larger conference might be arranged, with team competition.

In the mile Frank Kelley outdid his usual stellar performance. In the sixth lap of the ten-lap race, Kelley lost one of his shoes and completed the race without it. In the weight department Chet Lakomski rang the bell by putting the shot 45 feet, 9½ inches; Johnny Grigas followed next in line with 43 feet, 9¾ inches. Carlisle of Brown placed third with but 40 feet, ¼ inch.
